

I believe that SBG's action in ordering its local affiliates to show a political piece of advertising free of charge is a blatant attempt to influence the Presidential election. SBG's executives are certainly free to support the Presidential candidate of their choice, but using the publicly owned broadcast medium is an egregious misuse of a public resource.